Bhartiya Jan Vikas (BJV), New Delhi

Dear all ,

It gives me great pleasure to share BJV's 2020-21 Annual Report with you. This report is a reflection of the BJV's achievements and its challenges from April 1, 2020 to March 31, 2021.

I am proud to share that in its 5 years of journey BJV has achieved its objective set forth towards its vision of contributing toward upliftment of community.

This year's journey of BJV took place during the Corona period. When all the people were sitting in the house to save their lives, then the members and volunteers of the bjb left their worries to the society and the government for the items needed like food, masks, sanitizers and other things, was providing.

After the end of the Corona period did a survey on women empowerment and agriculture in various villages and districts of UP & Others state the relevant institutions to make them more empowered and upgraded. BJV also worked to set up dental camps for the health of the people and the plantation of the environment Camping done in many places of the country. Thanks everyone for supporting us to create successful stories of BJV.
